

Pupils Day 2018

In September 2018, we opened our lab for the first time for a “Pupil’s day” to encourage young talents to learn about the job as a scientist.

Two pupils from Biel accompanied members of the Peinelt’s lab and were given the chance to experience experimental lab work hands-on.

