NCCR TransCure Workshop given by Corinne Staub

„How to be quick-witted – The quick response“

How often do we say in hindsight, „If only I had said...“. In this workshop you will learn a variety of skills to enable you to steer a conversation. It will teach you to be "quick-witted" and nevertheless remain calm. At the end of the workshop you will have a broad repertoire of communication tools and techniques at your disposal.

Communications skills:

- How do you get what you want
 - How to stay relaxed and self-confident, even in difficult situations
 - How to be quick-witted and spontaneous
 - How to stop saying „yes“ when you want to say „no“
 - How to engage Power Talk
 - How to avoid self blockade?
